It would, however have been a little more honest on the part of His Excellency, if, in publishing this table, he had offered some exclanations of the reason why he had releasedso thany prisoners less than Sir Arthur Kennedy during a given period. vote in favor of H. E. the Governor, who is the Chinaman's No. 1 friend. Measrs Leong on and Ng Choy, upon very good authority, are stated to have advised the Chinese to go to the City Hall Meeting to oppose "an attack to be made on the Governor by the foreign community.' They certainly went to the City Hall, and secured nearly all the seats-for a short

Another very successful entertainment was given at the City Hall Theatre on Saturday evening, by the Royal English Opera Company, before, as usual, a very large "house." PUBLIC OPEN-AIR MEETING.

In pursuance to the advertisement of the Sheriff (Mr C. F. A. Sangster), calling a public meeting to consider the present state of insecurity of life and property in the Colony, and to pass such resolutions as may be deemed advisable, -the foreign residents began to assemble in St. George's Hall, City Hall building, shortly before 3 p. m. Long before that hour, however, the native residents were observed streaming down in chairs, which suggested nothing short of a race-day. The result of this sedan flow soon began to appear, and long ere the hour of meeting arrived, the large hall was densely packed by a Chinese audience-a very small space indeed being left for the foreign residents, the Committee the obtaining an enthusiastic encore for his Sheriff, or even the Chairman. Some colony, and repressive measures were framed for its repression. That those measures were effective in checking crime was shown by the decrease in it that ensued. Of late repressive measures here had been relaxed, and he thought return to the more stringent ways of dealing with the crimical class was desirable. He referred more particularly to the use of the cat, which might be a cruel instrument, well as he did that there was a very dangerous class on the mainland, and very severe measures were necessary to keep them away from this Colony. (pplause).

Mr Francis asked whether they were to have on that occasion a discussion in regard to the state of the Colony or whether a number of gentlemen had come there—who had discussed the matter and decided the question among themselves, and had tueir resolutions prepared and drawn up, and their speeches out and dried-to ask the easent of that meeting to their resolutions. The meeting was called to "consider and discuss the existing state of insecurity in the Colony," and to pass any such resolutions as might be deemed desirable. If the resolutions and speeches were cut and dried he did not think the meeting would have the weight it otherwise would have (expressions of disapprobation.)

The CHAIRMAN contended that "out and dried resolutions" were quite in order. Mr Francis said he had not received an answer to his question.

The CHAIRMAN begged Mr Francis's par-__don; he was not in a position to tell Mr Francis what was going to take place, and he declined to do anything of the kind.
